

Image from Where the Rabbit Sleeps (2001)

kurz und klein short and small

HIGHLIGHTS FROM THE OBERHAUSEN
INTERNATIONAL SHORT FILM FESTIVAL

Oberhausen's International Short Film Festival, in its 50th anniversary this year, is one of the oldest and most renowned film festivals in the world. Festival Director, Lars Henrik Gass, is touring New Zealand with a series of programmes celebrating the world of the short film.

AUCKLAND

International (video)

Saturday 29th May 6.30pm
Auckland Art Gallery Auditorium
(cnr Kitchener Wellesley St)

Eastern Europe (film)

Monday 31st May 6.30pm
Rialto Cinema, Newmarket

International (film)

Tuesday 1st June 6.30pm
Rialto Cinema, Newmarket
Ticket prices apply

www.mic.org.nz

MIC receives major funding from Creative New Zealand

WELLINGTON

International (video)

Wednesday 2nd June 6.30pm
Lecture Theatre 10A02,
Old Museum Building,
Massey University Free

Eastern Europe (film)

Thursday 3rd June 7.15pm
mediatheatre, film archive,
cnr Ghuznee & Taranaki Streets
Ticket prices apply

International (film)

Saturday 5th June 7.15pm
mediatheatre, film archive,
cnr Ghuznee & Taranaki Streets
Ticket prices apply
www.filmarchive.org.nz

THE FILM ARCHIVE

CHRISTCHURCH

MuVi (music video clips)

Friday 4th June 3.00pm
Christchurch Art Gallery's Philip
Carter Family Auditorium, $5.
www.physicsroom.org.nz

kurz und klein shortandsmall

AFFIX STAMP
HERE

HIGHLIGHTS FROM THE OBERHAUSEN
INTERNATIONAL SHORT FILM FESTIVAL

" I smoked my first cigarette there. For years, I saw every single film... These events were important for me, for my decision to become a filmmaker. " – Wim Wenders